

MIMES, MIMICS and CLOWNS

Just in case some might wonder why such a strange sounding title, I will attempt to offer the following explanation.

Regardless of whether one is writing a book, a short story, a song or a teaching article such as this one, you may want to consider the following fact.

Nothing can be accomplished or gained unless 'something' prompts people to read or listen to the words offered.

Curiosity would seem to be as good as anything could be for that purpose.

Often people have a general idea of what the actual meaning of certain words are, but I prefer making certain that the strange title of this writing is understood as intended.

Let us begin by examining the words of this title according to Webster's definitions of same.

Without going deeper than what is necessary let's go with the 'long story short' version.

After close examination of Webster's I was rather surprised to learn that the word 'mime' and the word 'mimic' are both 'rooted in', but slightly different forms of the same word.

One could accurately say that they are cousins. Both can be used as either a noun or a verb depending on how they are used.

The main difference between these two is simply that to 'mime' something is usually done without sound and the word 'mimic' most often includes sound.

Hence something mimed denotes the appearance of, and to mimic something means to 'SOUND LIKE'.

For the purpose of this article however, the point not to be overlooked is that BOTH are but IMITATIONS, SIMULATED or PRETENDED. To sum up everything thus far' let's boil everything said thus far, down to these words, 'NOT REAL OR GENUINE'.

Hopefully the definition of the word CLOWN will require no explanation other than to say that all three of our words in question are normally thought of to be, primarily, for the 'purpose' of ENTERTAINMENT.

Now let's move ahead to the place “where the rubber meets the road”, another very old but useful saying. Let us continue by stating that, more often than not, that which is amusing in the eyes of man, is 'seldom' viewed that way by God at all.

The greatest threat to THE CHURCH, The Body of Christ comes 'not' from outside itself, but from WITHIN. Even Satan himself is NO PROBLEM for a genuine believer.

Jesus overcame this world, the evil in it, and the prince and god of this world 'for us'.

He broke the power of sin and the 'fear of death' which had held mankind in bondage since the day that Adam chose to love SIN more than he loved God.

Jesus has 'made us to be' (IN HIM), more than overcomers. He has given us his NAME and the right to use his NAME to become victorious in 'every' area of our lives.

Jesus' victory over sin, hell, death and the grave has made it possible 'for us' to escape God's eternal TRUTH, “The wages of sin is death.”

Having said all that, we have come full circle back to the subject of this article, THE MIMES, THE MIMICS and THE CLOWNS.

THE CHURCH, The Body of Christ in the earth is filled to overflowing with those mentioned above and it 'would be' amusing' were the consequences not so serious.

The word CLOWNS as used here only applies because the 'very thought' that men can fool God and that he can NOT see them for what they really are, is ludicrous.

Now, we are left with only the MIMES and MIMICS but keep in mind, that while appearing to be exactly what they claim to be, they are often very good imitations, but, 'as far from' REAL as anything or anybody could possibly be.

Has anyone reading these words ever seen advertisements such as this one?

“GENIUNE 'faux' pearls.”

Have you ever wondered about the contradiction contained in those three little words?

Many people fail to pay much attention to contradictions.

Consider that the word GENIUNE can only mean REAL but the word 'faux' can only mean imitation (fake or phony).

How many people spot the deception contained in that little contradiction or even wonder why that ad is worded as it is.

Millions of sales have been made from advertisements worded in this deceptive manner and I can NOT help but wonder how many by comparison would have been sold had they worded this same sales gimmick 'Genuine FAKE pearls'.

Far too often I find myself saying 'as the old saying goes' . My only defense for that is often many old sayings do contain many elements of truth 'hard to deny', yet easily seen and understood.

So, once again, there is a very popular 'old saying' "If it walks like a duck, quacks like a duck, and waddles like a duck, it probably is a duck."

Much truth to that one, but, very often UN-true when it comes to Christians.

When it comes to 'CHRISTIANS' there are two varieties. There are REAL Christians, and there are FAUX Christians.

It is extremely difficult to tell the difference and therein lies the 'rub', the catch as it were.

If we took every person in this earth who CLAIM to be 'Christians' and did a head count it would add up to a most sizable number.

The Catholic church alone boasts of members in excess of 1 and ½ billion members. A sizable number to be sure and they all 'call themselves' 'Christians'.

Unfortunately the largest majority of these have been deceived into believing that joining some group or organization is a guarantee of Salvation and ETERNAL LIFE.

Sadly to say, this is in fact, opposite, a contradiction, to what God actually said on this subject.

This deception is but a manifest token of exactly the opposite. God's TRUTH teaches that it is ONLY by Faith (trusting in Jesus) 'thru which' Salvation comes.

How many people have been lied too concerning this MOST basic Truth?

My first thought is, A LOT.

Nowhere in God's Word is it written that a man can be saved by JOINING anything.

No CHURCH, no GROUP, no ANYTHING, but by 'trusting in Jesus', and by trusting in him alone.

'All' who believe otherwise are only those who have based what they believe on the words of,
Mimes, Mimics and Clowns.

Add to that number all the members of the more than 38 thousand protestant denominations and you end up with a 'great number' of 'PROFESSING' Christians.

A far better word choice instead of saying 'great number',
would be the word MULTITUDES.

Anyone who sincerely desires to believe 'ONLY THE TRUTH', according to God, had best take the time and effort required to learn what God himself said. Consider the fact that eternity is a long, long, LONG time and that once it begins for anyone, it is irreversible.

Understand that these numbers mentioned represent only men's 'estimates' arrived at by some mathematician somewhere and un-named.

In a recent poll conducted by NBC last year their results showed that SUPPOSEDLY, 70% of Americans 'claimed to be' CHRISTIANS.

Using today's population estimates of these United States of America, that poll would translate into 210 MILLION Christians in America, but , remember that this number is, 'at best' ONLY an estimate.

The REAL TRUTH of the matter is that the vast majority (well in excess of 90% of this number) are Christians 'in name only'.

In God's eyes they would have the word 'faux' preceding the word CHRISTIAN.

In the case of our article and it's strange title
we could well say that a perfect description of a 'faux' Christian is actually nothing more than a Mime (all the right moves and appearance, or a Mimic, (sounds like) and a 'Clown as well' because they believe that if they can deceive men they can deceive God as well.

As a missionary once said, "I could go to a barn every day of my life, and that still would NOT make me a cow."

I have often thought about that man's statement, and never do but that I also think about how wonderful that illustration 'was' and 'still' is.

Millions, upon hundreds of millions, of professing (faux) Christians, who have NEVER known God and have NEVER been known 'by' God, have been DECEIVED into believing that they are indeed and in TRUTH a Christian.

Is it any wonder, then, that Jesus said in Matt. 24: 4

"Take heed that NO MAN deceive you."

Have you ever given the time to wonder why he described the deceivers as MEN?

In the very next verse he even describes the 'vastness of their numbers' with the word MANY.

Keep in mind that it was God who gave his only Son, it was Jesus who gave his life for us, so therefore it is God's right to say what is required to make a REAL Christian, not some MIME, MIMIC or CLOWN.

The multitudes who have chosen to believe and follow these 'deceivers' rather than God have in reality become only 'clones' of the same.

False prophets, false teachers and deceivers can only bring forth others like unto themselves.

The most difficult people to reach with the TRUTH are those who believe they already know the TRUTH.
Jesus described these as 'blind leaders of the blind', and then, went on to say that both would fall into a ditch.

It seems to me that a wise man would prefer to follow The One who made it all the way and is now seated at the right hand of God.

Now back to our story.

Considering the facts with which we have to work, "IF" this poll number were correct, then America would be THE MOST Christian NATION on earth percentage-wise.

Based solely on the number of abortions performed in this nation annually, this is the 'most' UN-CHRISTIAN NATION ON EARTH. It is IMPOSSIBLE to be 'both' a Christian and a justifier of MURDER, and/ or, MURDERERS. I repeat, I said 'IMPOSSIBLE'.

This fact is pointed out very clearly in Gal. 5: 21.

Here we find a very lengthy list of sins, the doers of which it plainly states SHALL 'NOT' INHERIT THE KINGDOM OF GOD.

Included in that list is the sin of murder. If the taking of a human life is murder, this would certainly include taking the life of a defenseless unborn child. Otherwise, there would be 'no such sin' as MURDER.

Well, God said there is such a sin as murder and then went on to say that NO MURDERER has eternal life in him.

Using America for our example, this nation is pretty much equally divided between 'Pro-Abortion' and 'Pro-Life'.

America's government has slowly and methodically been taken control of by the ungodly, the murders, and the whoremongers. Seeking not to stray far from the subject of this teaching, let me say that a great majority of these 'elected' or appointed leaders call themselves 'CHRISTIANS'. You will find many of those sitting in churches come Sundays.

They are but men (and women) who go to the barn believing that they are indeed cows. They may look like cows, they may sound like cows, but that will 'never' make them COWS.

Like manner Americans turn out in elections by the millions and put these CLOWNS in office and so, we are now a nation controlled by MIMES, MIMICS and CLOWNS.

Those who put them in power are but 'their' offspring and equally as guilty of the blood of the innocent.

For anyone 'to elect' into public office some ungodly politician who promotes and passes laws declaring Murder to be lawful, while claiming to be a CHRISTIAN, is just as guilty as the politician who calls himself a Christian while enacting laws justifying this abomination. Both will suffer the same punishment and NEITHER will inherit the Kingdom of God.

What we have then in America is a nation of 'goats' who believe that if they call themselves 'sheep' that they are indeed, God's 'sheep'.

They are not sheep, they are not cows, and, MOST importantly, they are not CHRISTIANS. They are MIMES, they are MIMICS, they are CLOWNS.

The entire point of this article is NOT based on what 'men's ideas' are of what constitutes a 'Christian', but the 'real truth' as viewed by God.

Having the 'appearance of Godliness' (MIMES), or 'sounding like' (by quoting God's words) MIMICS, or even a combination of both, MEANS NOTHING.

NOT TO GOD !!!

Some of the worst of false prophets alive today are the most proficient WORD QUOTERS of the Bible this earth has ever seen.

I might point out at this juncture that
Satan is THE most proficient WORD QUOTER of all.

Would that make him a Christian?

Could it?

That answer should be obvious to all.

Let us return for a moment to the warning Jesus gave.

In Matthew 24: 4 Jesus warned of 'a multitude of deceivers among men' and even numbered them with the single word, 'MANY'.

This word MANY could mean many different things to many different people.

One person might think it means simply,
A LOT. Another might describe it with the words 'a really LARGE number'.

In reality this word MANY means the LARGEST PART of a whole. The majority. Our question then becomes 'the largest part of WHAT WHOLE.

That answer is found in the very next verse.

Verse 5 - Here Jesus describes the GROUP
'out of which' this multitude of deceivers will come.
"For MANY shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ;
and shall deceive MANY."

Many have taught that this verse is speaking of men like Charles Manson, Jim Jones and on and on and on.

Now look back at this verse 5 and apply that understanding to exactly what Jesus said.

Can you see Charles Manson (or anyone else) come and say "I come in 'the name of Jesus', and 'I am' Jesus."

That does not even make 'walking around sense'
and even a goose is smarter than that.

NO, Jesus is describing a particular group of people. The group he is describing are those written of in this article.

Those who 'CLAIM' to be Christians and compass
the earth saying "I come 'in the name of Jesus' saying that 'I (Jesus) is the Christ'.

How MANY Muslims, Buddhist, Hindus or atheist have you ever seen preaching that Jesus is the Christ?
My best guess isn't 'NOT MANY', but 'NOT ANY'.

One of Satan's most successful deceptions ever bought by the Body of Christ is simply this;
Anyone and EVERYONE who comes preaching Jesus was sent by God and every word they speak is FROM GOD and is indeed speaking THE TRUTH.

What kind of human reasoning would one use to believe that the DECEIVERS Jesus warned of would come saying that they are deceivers?
(Another useful old saying, "Less sense than God gave a goose.")

In the 7th chapter of Matthew, beginning at verse 15, Jesus said, "Beware of false prophets, which come to you in sheep's clothing, (disguised as Christians)
but inwardly they are ravening wolves."

Question. Why would Jesus warn you to beware of men (false prophets) if you had no way of recognizing one when you saw one?

Don't settle for being a goose. Read on.

Verse 16 - "Ye shall know them by their fruits. Do men gather grapes of thorns, or figs of thistles?"

Verse 17 - "Even so, EVERY GOOD TREE bringeth forth GOOD FRUIT; but a corrupt tree bringeth forth evil fruit.

Of course, you need consider that a ministry of false prophets have their proof of the fruits they have BROUGHT FORTH.

You might notice however, that 'their' proof of that will only be 'their' own testimony.

Would not that be something left to God to judge?

Bragging on their impressive numbers seems FAR more like 'self-exaltation' than it does 'humility'.

As with all lies and deceptions of course, they do often contain 'SOME TRUTH'. Many of the largest worldwide ministries, have and ARE, producing fruit.

Problem with that is simply this. If they are but corrupt trees, then likewise, the fruit they have brought forth, is corrupt also.

Not exactly something to brag about. What was that Paul wrote of concerning fruit?

1st Corinthians 3: 6 "I have planted, Apollos watered, but (But, BUT,) God gave the increase."

Question time. Who does it sound like Paul is exalting? Sound to me like all the Glory belongs to God and to no man. How does this compare to when you hear large worldwide ministries BOAST of 'their' tremendous accomplishments for God?

To describe these in two words or less, they are simply 'GLORY GRABBERS'.

Vanity has 'NO PLACE' in the Kingdom of God. I said,
'NO PLACE'.

Should anyone reading these words find their heroes to be only men, you need to go back to the beginning and get to KNOW the only real Hero in God's eyes. His name is Jesus, and should that last statement come as a shock to you, you would do well to go back and re-evaluate WHY you believe WHAT you believe.

If you have been deceived into following one of these vain white-washed sepulchers please know this; You will end up wherever that man (or woman) does.

If however, you have heard the voice of 'THE ONE'
True Great Shepherd JESUS, and have followed him and him alone, you can be equally as certain, that you will end up exactly where he did.

At this juncture, I would be remiss if I did not say the following.
If the words of this short article turn out to be true,
you will be expected to believe and receive them.

If not, then God will expect you to reject and to cast them aside. That choice is yours and only the SPIRIT OF TRUTH will be able to make it known to you. He will. but you'll have to ask, you'll have to believe that God sent Him for a reason, and that reason is so that he
'can' lead and guide you into ALL the TRUTH.

John 16: 13

You can be absolutely positive beyond a shadow of a doubt that God did NOT send Him to lead and guide you unto some MIME, some MIMIC or some CLOWN.

In either case, you will never again be able to say,
you were 'not' warned.

The Mimes, Mimics and Clowns described in this article, and described by Jesus with the word
"MANY", are more plentiful in 'the CHURCH',
(The Body of Christ), today than ever before.
That number is not diminishing but every day increasing.

Deceivers today are thicker than fleas on a dog.
In Matt. 23: 15, Jesus gave an excellent description of those written of in this article. Remember now, Jesus warned of MANY deceivers and said very plainly that they were 'of a group' who came saying that He, Jesus, was THE CHRIST.

In order for their disguise to be effective, they will give every appearance of being 'Christians' but when all is said and done, they are nothing but MIMES, MIMICS and CLOWNS. They will have every appearance of being Christians. They will sound like what you think a Christian should 'sound like'.

Their true motives however will be kept hidden. Their true motive is however revealed by God in HIS Word.

Verse 15 - "Woe to you scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For ye compass sea and land to MAKE ONE PROSELYTE, and when he is made, ye make him twofold more the child of hell than yourselves."

In this short article Jesus has given you warning to beware of THESE, he has called them by many names and told you exactly what they would come saying.

Well guess what? He was exactly right, of course, and he expects those who love him, TO BELIEVE HIM, and NOT some deceiver.

The fact is, these deceivers have 'all' the appearance of real Christians. They are NOT.

The degree of success achieved by any particular type of deception is dependent upon the skill of the deceiver and in particular the amount of God's Word they use as their proof.

The best example I can think of to include here would be those who are most proficient at using God's own Word to nullify or cancel his Word somewhere else.

For our example, you would do well to study the entire 10th chapter of John but in particular verse 4. "And when he (speaking of Jesus) putteth forth his own sheep, he goeth before them, and the sheep follow him, FOR THEY KNOW HIS VOICE.”

Also consider that 7 times in the book of Rev. chapters
2 & 3 Jesus says in slightly differently worded forms,
“He that hath an ear, let him HEAR what the Spirit saith unto the churches.”

The most proficient deceivers of all will simply stamp 'EXPIRED' and 'NO LONGER IN EFFECT' on these scriptures and every one similar.

In short, and in today's language, they will seek to convince 'believers' who simply take Jesus at his Word that GOD 'NO LONGER' SPEAKS
TO MEN. The cannon has been closed and blah, blah, blah.

These who do this very thing are simply seeking to pass God's Word away. They are simply those whose ONLY knowledge of God is from the HEAD rather than the HEART.

Bad news for any and all who are guilty of doing this very thing.

God takes a very dim view of those who do this.

These deceivers are the most difficult to spot
unless you remember a few simple truths.
God's Words are ETERNAL. God does not CHANGE.
Neither do his Words. These Clowns will quote out 'one side of their mouth' these LIES and at the same time, out 'the other side' will quote Hebrews 13: 8 - “JESUS CHRIST the same yesterday, and to day, and for ever.”

Those who do these things are Word changers,
Word Adders, Word Twisters and Word passer-away-ers. They are not on your side, they are the worst of the deceivers. They are only Mimes, Mimics and Clowns.

They are counting on the fact that they have more of God's Word in them than you do.

They are 'of those' who creep into houses to deceive the Simple (concerning evil).
They are those who are 'ever learning' but NEVER able to 'come to' the KNOWLEDGE (to KNOW) of the TRUTH. Jesus is THE TRUTH.
A good example of this is as follows.
One who sincerely is seeking the TRUTH might find it on the Internet at what first appears to be a wonderful work of God.
The first time you visit this site, you notice NO MERCHANDISE for sale there. You think, "Well, that's a good sign."
Then as you begin studying the articles, teachings, and etc. there you find that everything seems to be in perfect agreement with God's Word.
Slowly but surely you find yourself trusting these people more, and more and more.
As your trust begins to build, it is only natural to begin to let down your guard.
Then, just about the time you have decided that these 'people' are trustworthy, Wham !! Here comes the deceptions of men.
Satan is a most patient of devils. He will quote chapter and verse, and chapter and verse, and on and on.
Then, when you are at your least guarded moment he will execute his real plan.
His Word stealers will reveal how God has changed, how His Word has passed away, expired, or does not apply to Christians. They will begin to quote and exalt 'men' and their doctrines rather than God's.
Without realizing what has happened, the lies, the doubts, the unbelief will begin to do it's deadly work.
This can be summed up with one word.
BEWARE !!!!

There are hundreds if not thousands of inmates in mental institutions who believe themselves to be George Washington, Napoleon or some other great historic figure, but, their believing that, and saying that, is far from making it so.

God has even warned us of a 'man' who would come claiming to be God 'himself'.

Now just 'where', should one suppose, would a mere man get that idea?

Did I say from where? I should have more correctly said, 'from whom'.

The origin of that vain thought is written in Isaiah 14: 13-14.

My only point in mentioning this is to say, that thinking something, and saying something, 'DOES NOT MAKE IT SO'.

In the very next verse (15), God says exactly what the end will be for this Clown of all Clowns.

Should it come as any surprise if the Father of all Clowns would also ('like God'), have a Son of 'his own', and, Satan's son (the son of perdition) would be exactly 'Like' his father?

How vain would a 'man' have to be to declare himself to be 'GOD'?

My first guess would be 'just about as vain as his father Satan'.

Jesus himself described Satan as "the thief who comes but for to kill, to steal and destroy."

Be on watch for one like this. Remember those great old sayings. "Like father, like son."

Watch for the sudden ascension of a man of these characteristics (those of Satan), and WHEN you do, LOOK UP, for the coming of the Lord is very near, even at the door.

God's judgment for Satan and Satan's son has already been written. It can NOT be changed because once God speaks his Word it is ETERNAL, it is FOREVER. It can NOT be changed or altered.

This judgment applies not only to the originator of this vanity, but to 'ALL' who follow and serve him. This includes, therefore, all the MIMES, MIMICS AND CLOWNS masquerading as Christians.

If you claim to be a Christian but believe any part of God's Word has passed away, you are nothing more than a MIME, MIMIC or CLOWN.

If the things you believe turn out to be only what you have learned from deceivers, then you in turn have 'become' a deceiver.

If you find yourself among those who have never heard the voice of THE GREAT SHEPHERD, JESUS, then you need to go back to square one and meet the ONE who died in your place.

It is written in Rev. 19: 20 that the beast and the false prophet will be cast alive into the lake of fire. Then in Rev. 20: 10 it says that the devil that deceived them will also be cast there.

So far, it doesn't sound as if that should be of any concern to anyone else. That is of course unless you go ahead to verse 15 of this same 20th chapter where we read, "And whosoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire."

Should someone, anyone, be wondering what has these facts have to do with MIMES, MIMICS and CLOWNS I'll answer that question as simply as possible.

There are no, No, NO, MIMES, MIMICS or CLOWNS whose names are written in that book.

That should be sufficient for the wise. Should there be any 'geese' here, perhaps they should be 'getting used to hearing' the saddest words any man will ever hear, “Depart from me, I NEVER KNEW YOU.”

There is but ONE way out for any man, woman, boy or girl.
That one way has a name.
It is the name which God himself has exalted above 'every' name that is named.
That name is JESUS.
He is the Son of the Living God.

How much time remains for your eternal Salvation?
How much time remains for the MIMES, MIMICS and Clowns to repent?
If you place any value in God's answer to these questions, his answer for YOU is simple.
It can NOT be misunderstood.
You need NOT go to any man to find that answer.
Simply open up God's Word to 2nd Cor. 6: 2
“For he (God) saith, I have heard thee in a time accepted, and in the day of salvation have I succoured thee:
BEHOLD,
'NOW' is the accepted time;
BEHOLD,
'NOW'
is the day of Salvation.”

My prayer is that YOU will allow THE SPIRIT OF TRUTH
to lead and guide you into ALL TRUTH.
AMEN
and
